

The Secure Holiday Newsletter

Shop Safely. Give Wizely.

Tis the season for scams so unwrap these safety tips first!

With holiday errands, travel plans, and last-minute deals, it's easy to let online safety slide. These quick tips will keep your devices, data, and wallet protected so that the only surprises this season are the good kind.

Online Shopping Safety Checklist

Add this to your holiday shopping basket as you browse festive deals online! And in the spirit of giving, share with friends and family, too.

Get The Checklist

Giving back this holiday? Watch out for fake charities!

Scammers can take advantage of your generosity with fake donation requests... Stay safe by:

- Verifying the charity before donating.
- Watching out for urgent donation requests from unknown charities.
- Never paying via gift cards or wire transfers.

Give with your heart, but protect your wallet!

Get The Guide

Beware of TikTok Shop Scams

Make a list, check it twice, and find out which online deals are naughty and which are nice! Fake shops and ads on TikTok and other social apps are everywhere this season, and they can look very convincing. Watch this short clip to know which flags to stay alert for.

Watch The Clip

Unwrap the Truth: 4 Signs a Delivery Message Is a Scam

“Your package is on the way!” is a holiday favorite, and scammers know it. They craft their fake delivery messages to look just like the real thing. Our quick guide covers 4 simple red flags that help you tell a real delivery update from a scam. Give it a quick look and share it with friends and family so everyone stays safe this season!

Get The Guide

Merry Mode: ON Sneaky Scams: OFF

'Tis the season to stay secure.

Gift Card Smarts for the Holidays

Giving gift cards this season? From cards that were tampered with on the store rack to “pay me in gift cards” requests, there are a few traps to watch for.

Check out our quick tips so your gift brings joy, not trouble.

Get The Guide

wizer-training.com

